

UTTARANCHAL AYURVEDIC (P.G.) COLLEGE, DEHRADUN, UTTARAKHAND

CME PROGRAMME FOR AYURVEDIC MEDICAL OFFICERS

(6-DAYS IN MODULE 1 & 2)

SPONSERED BY

Rashtriya Ayurveda Vidyapeeth, Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Deptt. of Ayush, Govt. of INDIA,
New Delhi.

Uttaranchal Ayurvedic College has organized a 6 day CME for Doctors in subject modules 1&2, from 9th June 2014 to 14th June 2014. The programme was sponsored by the department of AYUSH, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, New Delhi and was coordinated by Rashtriya Ayurveda Vidyapeeth (RAV), Punjabi Bagh, New Delhi.

Brief Summary of CME

- Total 24 sessions spanning over 37 hours were conducted during 6 days CME.
- Total 30 Ayurvedic Doctors participated from 6 States (Himachal Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana, Uttarakhand, Chattisgarh)
- 11 Eminent speakers (Resource Person) from various reputed organizations delivered lectures.

Objectives Achieved

- Reorientation of theoretical & practical knowledge of Ayurvedic practitioners.
- Impartment of latest information in the field of Ayurveda.
- Inspiration for R&D approach in practice.
- Sharing knowledge/skill among fellow practitioners & Ayurvedic community.
- Discussion of technical difficulties faced during practice.
- Information about legal aspect.
- Tackling emergencies via Ayurvedic medicines.
- Challenges related to newer diseases.
- Motivation for focus on preventive health measures.
- Inclusion of more technology & diagnostic tools.
- Exposure of R&D going on different spheres of health activity.
- Inspiration for innovation, creativity & presentation in concern area of specialization.
- Motivation for discovery/invention in treatment of diseases likes- autoimmune diseases, viral diseases, Cancer, etc.